

Join us for a Quiet Xmas

We plan to celebrate Christmas quietly, but thoroughly.

The hotel will have enough decorations to remind us that the Xmas season is with us.

You can expect warm hospitality, excellent food and a relaxing atmosphere.

There will be no young children and the hotel will not be filled to capacity.

There will be sufficient to eat and drink—and we'll do the cooking, cleaning and washing-up. If this type of Christmas is to your liking — join us for Xmas this year.
